Let's celebrate Easter through choral music and joyous congregational singing. For more information, contact Deborah Buck, dbuck@sasktel.net or 306-652-0379.

The HEALTH CABINET is planning to hold a CPR/AED Training Course on April 24 at 6:45PM at Augustana. Course cost is $65+GST. Call or text Linda Catton (306 260 8511) for details. A sign-up sheet is up in the narthex.

Saskatoon Theological Union Renaming Survey ends today, April 16

The schools of the Saskatoon Theological Union (STU) (which includes LTS) are discussing the possibility of a new name to reflect their newly developing projects and relationships. They are moving beyond the loose kind of sharing that is usually named a "theological union." All these schools are moving out to reach beyond Saskatoon with onsite and online programs, and with support for various arrangements across and beyond Western Canada. Please participate in an advisory poll that will be very helpful to STU as they move forward. To participate, please complete the survey at <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/MV8JTDI>

For the Love of Creation invites all faith communities to be part of the movement to join under a unified banner to mobilize education, reflections, action and advocacy for climate justice, during Earth Week 2023. Coming Together For the Love of Creation (April 16-23) is a way to connect, grow, listen, inspire hope and affect change. Please click here to read more!

You are invited to a presentation by President William Harrison of the Lutheran Theological Seminary on Tuesday, April 25th at 7 pm at Zion. Please come and learn more about the exciting new developments at LTS associated with "Our Classroom is Western Canada" and the STU (Saskatoon Theological Union). We look forward to a wonderful informational evening and hearing how God is working in and through Lutheran Theological Seminary.

CLWR Continues its plea for aid in the aftermath of the Earthquake in Syria

The first phase of CLWR's response to the disaster focused on emergency relief and was made possible through your generosity. Now the focus moves on to supporting a mid-term response to help those families who do not have a home to return to, and who have lost their means of income. A gift of just $35 can provide food, shelter, and basic psycho-social support for a family that has endured such trauma and devastation. Thank you for your continued support and please consider making a gift online at www.clwr.org/earthquake, or by calling CLWR's office at 1-800-661-2597.
