The International Day for the Elimination of Racial Discrimination (IDERD) is observed annually on March 21. It recognizes that injustices and prejudices fueled by racial discrimination continue to take place everyday. We lift up a prayer from a joint statement from the four leaders of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Canada, Anglican Church of Canada, Evangelical Lutheran Church in America and The Episcopal Church that was released last year on this day: God of Holy Ground, move us to lament and repent. Open our hearts, bodies, minds and souls to the cries of your people. Transform us by your presence. Drive us into action for the dismantling of racism in relationships, communities, institutions and societies. Bless us with companions who support us, challenge us and help us keeping going. We pray for the Elimination of Racial Discrimination. In the name of Jesus. Amen.
