

FINAL PRAYER AND DEPARTURE

When hope has left:

Still we watch and wait.

When darkness prevails:

Still we search for light.

When the road is hidden:

Still we seek a guide.

Christ of the cross, hold us in these moments as we wait for a garden vision, a mealtime revelation, a locked room blessing, and a lakeside renewal. We go in peace. AMEN.

+All who wish to may remain for prayer and meditation+

+Depart in silence+

+++++

There is no offering tonight, but if you wish to leave a gift, there is an offering plate at the back.

Thank you to our reader Tannis Sharp, musician Mik Bickis, ushers Gord and Sharon Morley, and acolytes Sarah Carlson and Mason Lindenbach for assisting in the service today. Thanks also to Karen Wallace for providing technical support.

AUGUSTANA LUTHERAN CHURCH

GOOD FRIDAY
Service of Light and Darkness
7:30 PM April 15, 2022

All gather in silence

WELCOME

GATHERING

The dramatic feature of this service is the gradual extinction of all the lights in the church. Tenebrae means 'shadows' or 'darkness.' The service begins in silence and as we hear the Passion story from the Gospel of St. John the light become dimmer. We go on our way in silence and await the benediction at our Easter celebration. Please feel free to remain in the sanctuary for personal reflection after the service.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Grieving God, on the cross your Son embraced death even as he had embraced life: faithfully and with good courage. Grant that we who have been born out of his wounded side may hold fast to our faith in him that we may find mercy in all times of need. AMEN.

A READING FROM Isaiah 52:13-53:12

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Leader: Suffering God, . . .

All: Forgive me the sorrows I have caused others; forgive them the wounds they have inflicted on me. For so we act and react in hurtful ways. Turn our hands to serve you with love. Put them to work to ease the suffering of our world. AMEN

HYMN: "Where Charity and Love Prevail" (vs. 1, 5) ELW #359
