

First Reading

Isaiah 17:5-10

⁵THUS SAYS THE LORD:

Cursed are those who trust in mere mortals
and make mere flesh their strength, whose hearts turn away from the LORD.

⁶They shall be like a shrub in the desert,
and shall not see when relief comes.

They shall live in the parched places of the wilderness,
in an uninhabited salt land.

⁷Blessed are those who trust in the LORD,
whose trust is the LORD.

⁸They shall be like a tree planted by water,
sending out its roots by the stream.

It shall not fear when heat comes,
and its leaves shall stay green;
in the year of drought it is not anxious,
and it does not cease to bear fruit.

⁹The heart is devious above all else;
it is perverse—

who can understand it?

¹⁰! the LORD test the mind
and search the heart,

to give to all according to their ways,
according to the fruit of their doings.

Second Reading

1 Corinthians 15:12-20

¹²NOW IF CHRIST IS PROCLAIMED AS RAISED FROM THE DEAD, how can some of you say there is no resurrection of the dead? ¹³If there is no resurrection of the dead, then Christ has not been raised; ¹⁴and if Christ has not been raised, then our proclamation has been in vain and your faith has been in vain. ¹⁵We are even found to be misrepresenting God, because we testified of God that he raised Christ—whom he did not raise if it is true that the dead are not raised. ¹⁶For if the dead are not raised, then Christ has not been raised. ¹⁷If Christ has not been raised, your faith is futile and you are still in your sins. ¹⁸Then those also who have died in Christ have perished. ¹⁹If for this life only we have hoped in Christ, we are of all people most to be pitied.

²⁰But in fact Christ has been raised from the dead, the first fruits of those who have died.

Gospel

Luke 6:17-26

¹⁷[JESUS] CAME DOWN WITH [THE TWELVE] AND STOOD ON A LEVEL PLACE, with a great crowd of his disciples and a great multitude of people from all Judea, Jerusalem, and the coast of Tyre and Sidon. ¹⁸They had come to hear him and to be healed of their diseases; and those who were troubled with unclean spirits were cured. ¹⁹And all in the crowd were trying to touch him, for power came out from him and healed all of them.

²⁰Then he looked up at his disciples and said:

“Blessed are you who are poor,
for yours is the kingdom of God.

²¹“Blessed are you who are hungry now,
for you will be filled.

“Blessed are you who weep now,
for you will laugh.

²²“Blessed are you when people hate you, and when they exclude you, revile you, and defame you on account of the Son of Man. ²³Rejoice in that day and leap for joy, for surely your reward is great in heaven; for that is what their ancestors did to the prophets.

²⁴“But woe to you who are rich,
for you have received your consolation.

²⁵“Woe to you who are full now,
for you will be hungry.

“Woe to you who are laughing now,
for you will mourn and weep.

²⁶“Woe to you when all speak well of you, for that is what their ancestors did to the false prophets.”

WELCOME TO AUGUSTANA

Lutherans and Anglicans worshiping together

We are a Christ-centered, welcoming community. We commit ourselves to modeling Christ's unconditional love in our worship, learning, fellowship, friendship, and service to others. Just as God welcomes and cares for us, so we welcome everyone to participate in all aspects of our community, without regard to sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, race, culture or ethnic background, physical or mental abilities, family or economic status, gender, or age. We pledge to ourselves and all others that we will strive to live as a reconciling people in our life together and in our outreach to the world.

Thank you for sharing in worship here today.
May God's abundant grace be a blessing to you,
a source of strength and hope.

Rediscovering the Art of Dying: How Jesus' Experience and Our Stories Reveal a New Vision of Compassionate Care Friday March 4, 9:00 am - Sunday March 6, 1:00 pm.

Psychotherapist Ana Gheysen will guide participants through the book Rediscovering the Art of Dying by Nuala Kenny at a Lenten Retreat at Queen's House. Together they will journey with Jesus from the Garden of Gethsemane to the Resurrection through presentations, small group discussions and journaling. Death and dying are difficult topics to face. This retreat provides a sacred container so that this process feels a little more doable. Ten presentations will explore our mortality, our ideas about the meaning of suffering, fears about what the end of life is like, questions about hospice and palliative care, and the role of ritual after death. For more details please visit this link <https://www.queenshouse.org/wp-content/uploads/2022/01/Rediscovering-the-Art-of-Dying-March-2022.pdf>

Commuter: $225; Commuter with a private dayroom: $300; Live-In, small bedroom: $367. This retreat will be offered with a minimum of 10 participants - registration deadline: February 28.

Augustana - Hymns for the 6th Sunday after Epiphany
February 13, 2022

GATHERING SONG: My Lord, What a Morning

ELW #438

Refrain:

My Lord, what a morning;
My Lord, what a morning;
Oh, my Lord, what a morning,
when the stars begin to fall.

- 1) You will hear the trumpet sound,
to wake the nations underground,
looking to my God's right hand,
when the stars begin to fall. [Refrain]
- 2) You will hear the sinner cry,
to wake the nations underground,
looking to my God's right hand,
when the stars begin to fall. [Refrain]
- 3) You will hear the Christian shout,
to wake the nations underground,
looking to my God's right hand,
when the stars begin to fall. [Refrain]

HYMN OF THE DAY: How Long, O God

ELW #698

- 1) "How long, O God?" the psalmist cries,
a cry we make our own,
for we are lost, alone, afraid,
and far away from home.
- 2) The evil lurks within, without,
it threatens to destroy the fragile cords that make us one,
that bind our hearts in joy.
- 3) Your grace, O God, seems far away;
will healing ever come?
Our broken lives lie broken still;
will night give way to dawn?
- 4) How can we hope? How can we sing?
O God, set free our voice
to name the sorrows, name the pain,
that we might yet rejoice.
- 5) "How long, O God?" the psalmist cries,
a cry we make our own.
Though we are lost, alone, afraid,
our God will lead us home.

SENDING SONG: I Want to Walk as a Child of the Light

ELW 815

- 1) I want to walk as a child of the light.
I want to follow Jesus.
God set the stars to give light to the world.
The star of my life is Jesus.

Refrain:

In him there is no darkness at all.
The night and the day are both alike.
The Lamb is the light of the city of God.
Shine in my heart, Lord Jesus.

- 2) I want to see the brightness of God.
I want to look at Jesus.
Clear Sun of righteousness, shine on my path,
and show me the way to the Father. [Refrain]
- 3) I'm looking for the coming of Christ.
I want to be with Jesus.
When we have run with patience the race,
we shall know the joy of Jesus. [Refrain]
