

First Reading

Isaiah 6:1-8

¹IN THE YEAR THAT KING UZZIAH DIED, I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, high and lofty; and the hem of his robe filled the temple. ²Seraphs were in attendance above him; each had six wings: with two they covered their faces, and with two they covered their feet, and with two they flew. ³And one called to another and said:

“Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of hosts;
the whole earth is full of his glory.”

⁴The pivots on the thresholds shook at the voices of those who called, and the house filled with smoke. ⁵And I said: “Woe is me! I am lost, for I am a man of unclean lips, and I live among a people of unclean lips; yet my eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts!”

⁶Then one of the seraphs flew to me, holding a live coal that had been taken from the altar with a pair of tongs. ⁷The seraph touched my mouth with it and said: “Now that this has touched your lips, your guilt has departed and your sin is blotted out.” ⁸Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, “Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?” And I said, “Here am I; send me!”

Second Reading

1 Corinthians 15:1-11

¹NOW I WOULD REMIND YOU, brothers and sisters, of the good news that I proclaimed to you, which you in turn received, in which also you stand, ²through which also you are being saved, if you hold firmly to the message that I proclaimed to you— unless you have come to believe in vain.

³For I handed on to you as of first importance what I in turn had received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the scriptures, ⁴and that he was buried, and that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the scriptures, ⁵and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. ⁶Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers and sisters at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have died. ⁷Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. ⁸Last of all, as to one untimely born, he appeared also to me. ⁹For I am the least of the apostles, unfit to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. ¹⁰But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace toward me has not been in vain. On the contrary, I worked harder than any of them—though it was not I, but the grace of God that is with me. ¹¹Whether then it was I or they, so we proclaim and so you have come to believe.

Gospel

Luke 5:1-11

¹ONCE WHILE JESUS WAS STANDING beside the lake of Gennesaret, and the crowd was pressing in on him to hear the word of God, ²he saw two boats there at the shore of the lake; the fishermen had gone out of them and were washing their nets. ³He got into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, and asked him to put out a little way from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat. ⁴When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, “Put out into the deep water and let down your nets for a catch.” ⁵Simon answered, “Master, we have worked all night long but have caught nothing. Yet if you say so, I will let down the nets.” ⁶When they had done this, they caught so many fish that their nets were beginning to break. ⁷So they signaled their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both boats, so that they began to sink. ⁸But when Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus’ knees, saying, “Go away from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man!” ⁹For he and all who were with him were amazed at the catch of fish that they had taken; ¹⁰and so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. Then Jesus said to Simon, “Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching people.” ¹¹When they had brought their boats to shore, they left everything and followed him.

WELCOME TO AUGUSTANA

Lutherans and Anglicans worshiping together

We are a Christ-centered, welcoming community. We commit ourselves to modeling Christ's unconditional love in our worship, learning, fellowship, friendship, and service to others. Just as God welcomes and cares for us, so we welcome everyone to participate in all aspects of our community, without regard to sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, race, culture or ethnic background, physical or mental abilities, family or economic status, gender, or age. We pledge to ourselves and all others that we will strive to live as a reconciling people in our life together and in our outreach to the world.

Thank you for sharing in worship here today.
May God's abundant grace be a blessing to you,
a source of strength and hope.

Celebrate Luther College's 50th Anniversary

Luther College in Regina is celebrating its 50th anniversary at a special event in June 2022. The school is looking for alumni and friends of Luther to share their stories in Luther College's upcoming Spring 2022 issue of The Luther Story which will be a special 50th Anniversary issue. The publication hopes to fill its pages with stories and memories from each decade from the 70's through the 2010's. Share your treasured memories of your time at Luther College whether that was in the classroom or living in the residence. Share your stories and friendships, laughter, learning, and growth. To send in your submission and a photo, email it to: lutherstory@luthercollege.edu by February 14, 2022.

Rediscovering the Art of Dying: How Jesus' Experience and Our Stories Reveal a New Vision of Compassionate Care Friday March 4, 9:00 am - Sunday March 6, 1:00 pm.

Psychotherapist Ana Gheysen will guide participants through the book Rediscovering the Art of Dying by Nuala Kenny at a Lenten Retreat at Queen's House. Together they will journey with Jesus from the Garden of Gethsemane to the Resurrection through presentations, small group discussions and journaling. Death and dying are difficult topics to face. This retreat provides a sacred container so that this process feels a little more doable. Ten presentations will explore our mortality, our ideas about the meaning of suffering, fears about what the end of life is like, questions about hospice and palliative care, and the role of ritual after death. For more details please visit this link <https://www.queenshouse.org/wp-content/uploads/2022/01/Rediscovering-the-Art-of-Dying-March-2022.pdf>

Commuter: $225; Commuter with a private dayroom: $300; Live-In, small bedroom: $367. This retreat will be offered with a minimum of 10 participants - registration deadline: February 28.

Love is patient;
love is kind.

Love heals,
not hurts.

Augustana - Hymns for the 5th Sunday after Epiphany
February 6, 2022

GATHERING SONG: "Here I Am, Lord"

ELW #574

(1) I, the Lord of sea and sky,
I have heard my people cry.
All who dwell in dark and sin
my hand will save.
I, who made the stars of night,
I will make their darkness bright.
Who will bear my light to them?
Whom shall I send?

Refrain:

Here am I, Lord. Is it I, Lord?
I have heard you calling in the night.
I will go, Lord, if you lead me.
I will hold your people in my heart.

(2) I, the Lord of snow and rain,
I have borne my people's pain.
I have wept for love of them.
They turn away.
I will break their hearts of stone,
give them hearts for love alone.
I will speak my words to them.
Whom shall I send? [Refrain]

(3) I, the Lord of wind and flame,
I will tend the poor and lame.
I will set a feast for them.
My hand will save.
Finest bread I will provide till their hearts be satisfied.
I will give my life to them.
Whom shall I send? [Refrain]

HYMN OF THE DAY: "You Have Come Down to the Lakeshore"

ELW #817

(1) You have come down to the lakeshore
seeking neither the wise nor the wealthy,
but only asking for me to follow.

Refrain:

Sweet Lord, you have looked into my eyes;
kindly smiling, you've called out my name.
On the sand I have abandoned my small boat;
now with you, I will seek other seas.

(2) You know full well what I have, Lord:
neither treasure nor weapons for conquest,
just these my fish nets and will for working. [Refrain]

(3) You need my hands, my exhaustion, working love for the rest of the weary
a love that's willing to go on loving. [Refrain]

(4) You who have fished other waters;
you, the longing of souls that are yearning:
O loving Friend, you have come to call me. [Refrain]

SENDING SONG: "In Christ Called to Baptize"

ELW #575

(1) In Christ called to baptize,
we witness to grace
and gather a people
from each land and race.
In deep, flowing waters,
we share in Christ's death,
then, rising to new life,
give thanks with each breath.

(2) In Christ called to banquet,
one table we share,
a haven of welcome,
a circle of care.
Although we are many,
we share in one bread.
One cup of thanksgiving
proclaims Christ, our head.

(3) In Christ called to witness,
by grace we will preach
the life-giving gospel;
God's love we will teach.
By grace may our living
give proof to our praise
in costly compassion
reflecting Christ's ways.

(4) Unite us, anoint us,
O Spirit of love,
for you are within us,
around us, above.
Equip us for service
with gifts you bestow.
In Christ is our calling.
In Christ may we grow.
