

Psalm 24

They shall receive blessing from the God of their salvation.
(Psalm 24:5)

- 1 The earth is the LORD's and all | that is in it,
the world and those who | dwell therein.
- 2 For the LORD has founded it up- | on the seas
and established it up- | on the rivers. R
- 3 Who may ascend the mountain | of the LORD,
and who may stand in God's | holy place?
- 4 Those of innocent hands and puri- | ty of heart,
who do not swear on God's being,
nor do they pledge by | what is false.
- 5 They shall receive blessing | from the LORD
and righteousness from the God of | their salvation.
- 6 Such is the generation of those who seek | you, O LORD,
of those who seek your face, O | God of Jacob. R
- 7 Lift up your heads, O gates; and be lifted up,
O ever- | lasting doors,
that the King of glory | may come in.
- 8 Who is this | King of glory?
The LORD, strong and mighty,
the LORD, might- | y in battle!
- 9 Lift up your heads, O gates; and be lifted up,
O ever- | lasting doors,
that the King of glory | may come in.
- 10 Who is this | King of glory?
Truly, the LORD of hosts is the | King of glory. R

First Reading

Isaiah 25:6-9

ON THIS MOUNTAIN the LORD of hosts will make for all peoples a feast of rich food, a feast of well-aged wines,
of rich food filled with marrow,
of well-aged wines strained clear.
And he will destroy on this mountain
the shroud that is cast over all peoples,
the sheet that is spread over all nations;
he will swallow up death forever.
Then the Lord GOD will wipe away the tears from all faces,
and the disgrace of his people he will take away
from all the earth,
for the LORD has spoken.

First Reading Continued

It will be said on that day,
Lo, this is our God;
we have waited for him,
so that he might save us.
This is the LORD for whom we have waited;
let us be glad and rejoice
in his salvation.

John 11:44
Jesus said to them,
"Unbind him and let him go."

Second Reading

Revelation 21:1-6a

I SAW A new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. And I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying,

"See, the home of God
is among mortals.
He will dwell with them;
they will be his peoples,
and God himself will be with them;
he will wipe every tear
from their eyes.
Death will be no more;
mourning and crying and pain
will be no more,
for the first things
have passed away."

And the one who was seated on the throne said, "See, I am making all things new." Also he said, "Write this, for these words are trustworthy and true." Then he said to me, "It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end."

Gospel

John 11:32-44

WHEN MARY came where Jesus was and saw him, she knelt at his feet and said to him, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died." When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her also weeping, he was greatly disturbed in spirit and deeply moved. He said, "Where have you laid him?" They said to him, "Lord, come and see." Jesus began to weep. So the Jews said, "See how he loved him!" But some of them said, "Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man have kept this man from dying?"

Then Jesus, again greatly disturbed, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone was lying against it. Jesus said, "Take away the stone." Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to him, "Lord, already there is a stench because he has been dead four days." Jesus said to her, "Did I not tell you that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?" So they took away the stone. And Jesus looked upward and said, "Father, I thank you for having heard me. I knew that you always hear me, but I have said this for the sake of the crowd standing here, so that they may believe that you sent me." When he had said this, he cried with a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out!" The dead man came out, his hands and feet bound with strips of cloth, and his face wrapped in a cloth. Jesus said to them,
"Unbind him, and let him go."

WELCOME TO AUGUSTANA

Lutherans and Anglicans worshipping together

We are a Christ-centered, welcoming community. We commit ourselves to modeling Christ's unconditional love in our worship, learning, fellowship, friendship, and service to others. Just as God welcomes and cares for us, so we welcome everyone to participate in all aspects of our community, without regard to sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, race, culture or ethnic background, physical or mental abilities, family or economic status, gender, or age. We pledge to ourselves and all others that we will strive to live as a reconciling people in our life together and in our outreach to the world.

Thank you for sharing in worship here today.
 May God's abundant grace be a blessing to you,
 a source of strength and hope.

Litany of Remembrance

O God of pilgrim journeys, we remember those who have accompanied us on our way . . .

. . . we give you thanks

For the blessing they brought to our lives. . .

. . . we give you thanks

May both our joy and sorrow be shared so that we may know your comfort. . .

. . . comfort all who mourn

Hold all your saints – in life and in death – in your care. We remember our brothers and sisters who, in death, are now in your care: Gordon Remus, Elsie Stephan, Edna Soule, Louise Goos, and Alan Finnestad,

Hold each one of us also in your care. Amen

If you would like to light a candle in remembrance of someone who has passed, please do so before the service starts.*

(As requested, candles are also being lit on behalf of Ron & Marlene Belke, Don & Shelby Gwozdz, Janice Kaminski, Heather Kleiner, Evelyn Knoll, Rob & Doris Lundmark.)

Hymns for All Saint's Sunday – November 7, 2021

GATHERING SONG: "Behold the Host Arrayed in White"
ELW #425

Behold the host arrayed in white like thousand snow-clad mountains bright, that stands with palms and sings its psalms
before the throne of light!
These are the saints who kept God's word;
they are the honored of the Lord.
He is their prince who drowned their sins,
so they were cleansed, restored.
They now serve God both day and night;
they sing their songs in endless light.
Their anthems ring when they all sing
with angels shining bright.

On earth their work was not thought wise,
but see them now in heaven's eyes;
before God's throne of precious stone
they shout their vict'ry cries.
On earth they wept through bitter years;
now God has wiped away their tears,
transformed their strife to heavenly life,
and freed them from their fears.
For now they have the best at last;
they keep their sweet eternal feast.
At God's right hand our Lord commands;
he is both host and guest.

O blessed saints, now take your rest;
a thousand times shall you be blest
for keeping faith firm unto death and scorning worldly trust.
For now you live at home with God and harvest seeds once cast abroad in tears and sighs. See with new eyes the pattern in the seed.

The myriad angels raise their song.
O saints, sing with that happy throng;
lift up one voice; let heav'n rejoice
in our redeemer's song!

HYMN OF THE DAY: "Sing with All the Saints in Glory"
ELW #426

Sing with all the saints in glory,
sing the resurrection song!
Death and sorrow, earth's dark story,
to the former days belong.
All around the clouds are breaking,
soon the storms of time shall cease;
in God's likeness we awaken,
knowing everlasting peace.

Oh, what glory, far exceeding all that eye has yet perceived!
Holiest hearts, for ages pleading never that full joy conceived.
God has promised, Christ prepares it,
there on high our welcome waits.
Ev'ry humble spirit shares it,
Christ has passed the eternal gates.

Life eternal! Heav'n rejoices:
Jesus lives, who once was dead.
Shout with joy, O deathless voices!
Child of God, lift up your head!
Life eternal! Oh, what wonders crowd on faith; what joy unknown,
when, amid earth's closing thunders,
saint shall stand before the throne!

COMMUNION SONG: "For the Bread Which You Have Broken"
ELW #494

For the bread which you have broken,
for the wine which you have poured,

for the words which you have spoken,
now we give you thanks, O Lord.

By this promise that you love us,
by your gift of peace restored,
by your call to heav'n above us,
hallow all our lives, O Lord.

With the saints who now adore you,
seated at the heav'nly board,
may the church still waiting for you keep love's tie unbroken, Lord.

In your service, Lord, defend us;
in our hearts keep watch and ward;
in the world to which you send us
let your kingdom come, O Lord.

SENDING SONG: "For All the Saints"
ELW #422

For all the saints who from their labors rest,
who thee by faith before the world confessed,
thy name, O Jesus, be forever blest.
Alleluia! Alleluia!

O blest communion, fellowship divine,
We feebly struggle, they in glory shine;
Yet all are one in thee, for all are thine.
Alleluia! Alleluia!

The gold evening brightens in the west;
soon, soon to faithful servants cometh rest;
sweet is the calm of paradise the blest.
Alleluia! Alleluia!

But then there breaks a yet more glorious day:
the saints triumphant rise in bright array;
the King of glory passes on his way.
Alleluia! Alleluia!
