

Jeremiah 29:1, 4-7

¹THESE ARE THE WORDS OF THE LETTER that the prophet Jeremiah sent from Jerusalem to the remaining elders among the exiles, and to the priests, the prophets, and all the people, whom Nebuchadnezzar had taken into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon. ⁴Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, to all the exiles whom I have sent into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon: ⁵Build houses and live in them; plant gardens and eat what they produce. ⁶Take wives and have sons and daughters; take wives for your sons, and give your daughters in marriage, that they may bear sons and daughters; multiply there, and do not decrease. ⁷But seek the welfare of the city where I have sent you into exile, and pray to the LORD on its behalf, for in its welfare you will find your welfare.

Second Reading

2 Timothy 2:8-15

⁸REMEMBER JESUS CHRIST, raised from the dead, a descendant of David—that is my gospel, ⁹for which I suffer hardship, even to the point of being chained like a criminal. But the word of God is not chained. ¹⁰Therefore I endure everything for the sake of the elect, so that they may also obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus, with eternal glory. ¹¹The saying is sure:

If we have died with him, we will also live with him;

¹²if we endure, we will also reign with him;

if we deny him, he will also deny us;

¹³if we are faithless, he remains faithful—

for he cannot deny himself.

¹⁴Remind them of this, and warn them before God that they are to avoid wrangling over words, which does no good but only ruins those who are listening. ¹⁵Do your best to present yourself to God as one approved by him, a worker who has no need to be ashamed, rightly explaining the word of truth.

Gospel

Luke 17:11-19

¹¹ON THE WAY TO JERUSALEM JESUS WAS GOING THROUGH THE REGION between Samaria and Galilee. ¹²As he entered a village, ten lepers approached him. Keeping their distance, ¹³they called out, saying, “Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!” ¹⁴When he saw them, he said to them, “Go and show yourselves to the priests.” And as they went, they were made clean. ¹⁵Then one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice. ¹⁶He prostrated himself at Jesus’ feet and thanked him. And he was a Samaritan. ¹⁷Then Jesus asked, “Were not ten made clean? But the other nine, where are they? ¹⁸Was none of them found to return and give praise to God except this foreigner?” ¹⁹Then he said to him, “Get up and go on your way; your faith has made you well.”

On Sunday, October 16, Lutheran churches across Canada will stand together to mark World Food Day. For many Canadians, the news of the growing hunger crisis can feel really far away – but in this global village, everyone is our neighbour. Join CLWR, and members of Canadian Foodgrains Bank as we stand together with people around the globe and unite in prayer for an end to the injustices of hunger.

The Canadian Foodgrains Bank is also offering an online National Prayer Gathering at 7:30pm (EST) on the 16th. This special prayer event will be an opportunity for Canadian Christians to gather and pray for an end to hunger. The event is open to anyone and will be hosted on Zoom. It is free, but registration is required and can be done online at the foodgrainsbank.ca website.

GRAND OPENING OF GROSVENOR PARK UNITED CHURCH

Saturday, October 22 – 7:00 pm

Come out to experience some of Saskatoon’s finest talent when Grosvenor Park United Church reopens as a fully renovated, wheelchair accessible, performing arts venue in Saskatoon.

Grosvenor was closed last year because of the pandemic and chose to use that time to upgrade its facility to better serve Saskatoon as a community hub. To help pay for the renovations 23 artists are coming together to put on a terrific concert that includes all kinds of music, dance, comedy, and poetry. The 23 performers include Khodi Dill, Eileen Laverty, Sons of Django, and Solstice.

The church’s major fundraisers have sold out in the past, so don’t be disappointed – get your tickets today, only at Eventbrite.

For $35 you’ll get over two hours of excellent variety entertainment, plenty of laughs, and a full heart.

WELCOME TO AUGUSTANA

Lutherans and Anglicans worshiping together

We are a Christ-centered, welcoming community. We commit ourselves to modeling Christ’s unconditional love in our worship, learning, fellowship, friendship, and service to others. Just as God welcomes and cares for us, so we welcome everyone to participate in all aspects of our community, without regard to sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, race, culture or ethnic background, physical or mental abilities, family or economic status, gender, or age. We pledge to ourselves and all others that we will strive to live as a reconciling people in our life together and in our outreach to the world.

Thank you for sharing in worship here today.
May God’s abundant grace be a blessing to you,
a source of strength and hope.

AUGUSTANA CHURCH COUNCIL & PERSONNEL

Chair	Dawn Ingram	306-374-4702
Vice-Chair	Karen Wallace
Secretary	Katie Ottley
Treasurer	Heather Ward
Accountant	Monica Johnson
Custodian	Martha Ann Geransky
Office Admin	Lorene Jewitt	306-242-9553

Pastor Marilyn is still a rostered leader, but no longer Augustana’s pastor. We love and cherish the friendship we have had, but we will not ask for further pastoral services such as counselling, baptisms, weddings and funerals. Pastor Michael Diegel and Pastor Ron Bestvater have agreed to help us with these events until we have an interim pastor.
